Principal Architect

Initially recognizable by its bright color, this micro-architecture will be an urban anchoring point in terms of esthetics and access. The school has a true entrance setup. Simultaneously playful and functional, it is weaving links into the neighborhood by means of a striking façade. The «Big Eight», the street address, is eye-catching and gives children a fun and dynamic image of their school, inviting them to enter. On the courtyard, the façade opens or closes to the rhythm of the school's...
